

Ginger M. Doyel

Education

Executive Seminar, Conflict and Resolution, St. John's College, Annapolis, MD 2002-03

B.A. Leadership Studies, University of Richmond, Richmond, VA 2001

Major: Leadership Studies, Minors: Art History and Studio Art

Honors & awards

Four Rivers Heritage Area Heritage Award 2004, 2006

Historic Annapolis Foundation Preservation Award 2003, 2004, 2006, 2008

Valedictorian, University of Richmond Jepson School of Leadership Studies 2001

James MacGregor Burns Award, Jepson School of Leadership Studies 2001

Research Fellow, Pew Partnership for Civic Change, Charlottesville, VA 2001

Phi Beta Kappa Book Award, University of Richmond, Richmond, VA 2000

Experience

Golf participant & illustrator

Founded and captained the University of Richmond's first women's golf team, 1999-2001

Volunteer for The First Tee Chesterfield and Richmond, 1999-2001

U.S. Naval Academy Golf Club member, Annapolis, MD, 2006 -10

Painted live at PGA Tour tournaments in Scottsdale, La Jolla, and Pebble Beach, 2009

Sketched live at The Masters, 2009

Painted live at the PGA Tour Players Championship in Ponte Vedra Beach, 2002

Founded Art Fore Golfers and created golf art for clients along the East Coast, 2001-09

Golf Course Architecture Intern, Clyde Johnston Designs, Hilton Head, SC, summer 1998

U. S. Naval Academy Golf Club Pro Shop and Junior Golf Clinic Assistant, summers of 1995-97

Book author, editor, and packager

Tomorrow's Youth Organization (Title TBD), Tomorrow's Youth Organization, forthcoming 2011

Over the Bridge: A History of Eastport at Annapolis, The Annapolis Maritime Museum, 2008

The Annapolitan Club: A Tradition of Hospitality since 1897, The Annapolitan Club, 2006

Gone to Market: The Annapolis Market House, 1698-2005, The City of Annapolis, 2005

Annapolis Vignettes, Tidewater Publishers, 2005

- Oversaw all aspects of the bookmaking process for Over the Bridge, The Annapolitan Club, and Gone to Market; raised the funds which made the books possible; researched, wrote, co-edited, and co-designed their content; ghostwrote various parts of their texts for two former Annapolis Mayors among other leaders; chose and led their production teams; created their marketing and distribution plans; assisted in creating their marketing and communications materials; acted as a point person for each book's media inquiries; and arranged and participated in book-related presentations and signings
- Discovered and collected the objects for, and co-designed, the Annapolis Maritime Museum's recent exhibition based on Over the Bridge. Archived the Annapolitan Club's materials. Assisted families, individuals, and institutions with collecting, archiving, and preserving materials related to Annapolis history

Freelance writer & media commentator

Frequent contributor to Shipmate, The College, and What's Up? Annapolis magazines, 2003-06

History writer for The Capital (weekly column "Annapolis: From Past to Present"), 2002-06
Annapolis Alive! television and radio program co-host and guest, 2007-08

Illustrator of history and children's books, other media

My Holy Land Pilgrimage, The Telos Group, forthcoming 2011

My Annapolis Adventure: Passport to Discovery, The City of Annapolis, 2003-06 editions

- Envisioned, illustrated, and developed the educational content for this series of activity books, which encourages children and families to explore Annapolis and Anne Arundel County history, culture, and environment by foot, bike, or by using public transportation.

On Grandpop's Lap, Bodkin Pointe Press, 2004

The City of Annapolis Holiday Open House invitation, 2004

Annapolis Mayor Ellen O. Moyer's Holiday Gala invitation, 2004

Illustrations for the Maryland Commission for Women, 2004

Gertrude the Albino Frog and Her Friend Rupert the Turtle, Hiccup Cottage Publications, 2003

Illustrations for Historic Annapolis Foundation, 2002-04

How Charlottesville Got Its Theater Back, The Paramount Theater of Charlottesville, Inc., 2002

Annapolis: The Guidebook, Conduit Press, 1998 and 1999 editions

U. S. Naval Academy distinguished visitor guide (volunteer)

Planned special events and led tours of Annapolis for diplomats and distinguished visitors to the U.S. Naval Academy from Iraq, Colombia, France, Spain, Gabon, Norway, Tanzania, Chile, and England. Planned and led tours of Annapolis for U.S. Naval Academy midshipmen, faculty, and staff

Public speaking

Frequently invited to address issues related to leadership, history, writing, publishing, and golf at events sponsored by the U.S. Naval Academy, the U. S. Naval Academy Women's Club, Historic Annapolis Foundation, St. John's College, the Annapolis Maritime Museum, Daughters of the American Revolution, the Annapolis Yacht Club, the Charles Carroll House of Annapolis, St. Mary's Parish (Annapolis, MD), St. Anne's Parish (Annapolis, MD), public and private elementary and high schools, and other institutions

Community involvement

Current member of the Mission Ranch Tennis and Fitness Club (Carmel, CA), The Church in the Forest (Pebble Beach, CA), and the American Institute of Wine & Food (Monterey Bay Chapter). Past member of the Annapolis Rotary Club, Hammond-Harwood House Board of Trustees, City of Annapolis Historic Preservation Commission, Ward One Residents Association Board of Directors, and Annapolis History Consortium.

Personal

Have traveled to South Africa, Zambia, Zimbabwe, Botswana, China, Israel, the Occupied Palestinian Territory, Jordan, Mexico, England, and Italy, and lived in Scotland. Enjoy playing golf and Scrabble and reading